

REGULARS BEAT PROBATIONERS

Booth and Cluff Nominated by Republicans of Fourth Judicial District.

EX-DEMOCRATES LOSE OUT

D. D. HOUTZ AND W. E. RYDALCH THE DEFEATED.

(Special to The Herald.)
Provo, Sept. 14.—The Republican Fourth Judicial district convention met today in the court room to nominate candidates for district judge and district attorney. There has probably been more interest in this than in any former judicial convention in this district on account of the close contest which has been waged between the rival candidates for judge—J. E. Booth and D. D. Houtz—and William E. Rydalch and Harvey Cluff for attorney. Before the convention each candidate and his supporters were confident of success, but in spite of this "confidence" there was a great deal of canvassing going on, and the action of the convention in the appointment of members of committees showed that no advantage would be lost by either side if possible. The Wasatch delegation came instructed for Booth for judge.

but not without considerable opposition, as to the number of members of the committee on credentials. Some of the Utah county delegates wanted three members for Utah county and one each from Wasatch and Uintah counties, and this was done after considerable talk. The following members were appointed: Charles J. Wahlgren of Wasatch, J. N. Davis of Uintah, H. C. Hicks, S. W. Ross and David Robertson of Utah county.

A motion to have the committee on permanent organization and order of business consist of five members failed to carry, and the following committee was appointed: A. C. Hatch, Wasatch; Enos Bennion, Uintah, and J. J. Jackson, Utah.

An adjournment was taken till 12 o'clock. There was a great scrap in the committee on credentials over the admission of Jacob Evans of Provo as a delegate from Fairfield and Cedar Fort. He held a proxy from the regularly-elected delegate, D. L. Thomas, and two reports were submitted. The majority report favored seating Mr. Evans. The minority was signed by H. C. Hicks and barred Mr. Evans. The majority report was adopted.

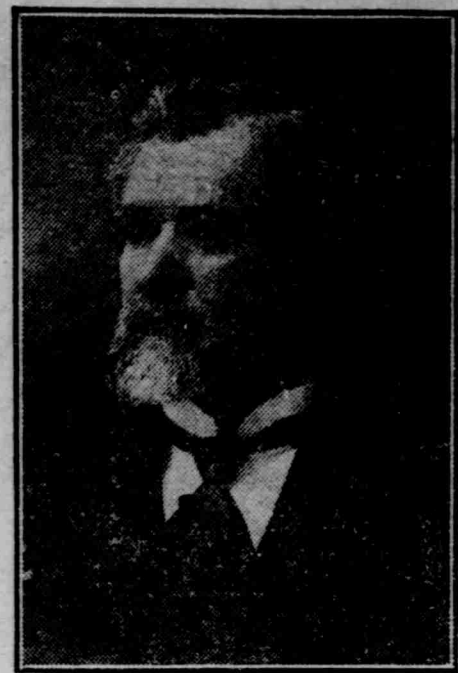

The committee on permanent organization recommended the temporary organization be made permanent, the nomination of a district attorney and the nomination of a judge. This report was adopted.

Professor George H. Brimhall nominated William E. Rydalch for attorney. S. W. Ross nominated Harvey Cluff for attorney.

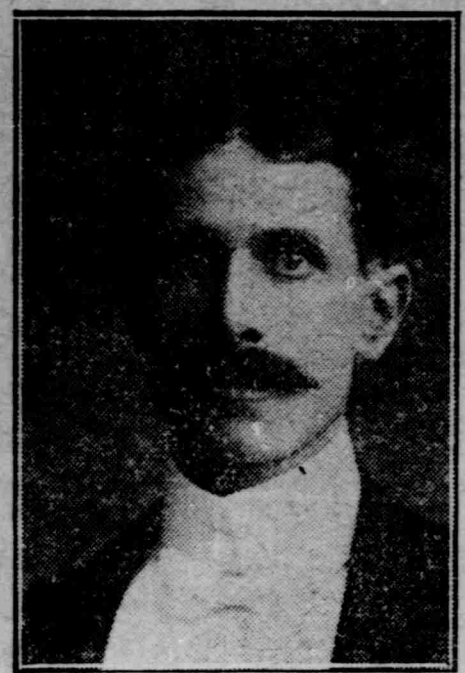

The vote was as follows: Cluff, 58; Rydalch, 30.
Judge J. E. Booth was placed in nomination for judge by S. P. Eggersten. Taylor Thurber of Spanish Fork nominated D. D. Houtz.

The vote stood 52 for Booth to 36 for Houtz.
Judge J. E. Booth, who was nominated today for judge of the Fourth Judicial district, is about 61 years of age and a native of England. He came to Utah at an early age and was educated in the University of Utah. He has been prominent in politics and has been judge of the Fourth Judicial district for ten years. He was first appointed for the unexpired term of Judge Dusenberry in 1898 and elected twice thereafter.

INSTALLING STEEL CELLS

New Apartment House at Penitentiary Will Be Completed Within Sixty Days.

Within sixty days the new cell house at the Utah state prison will be ready for use. The work on the building proper was finished some days ago and all that remains to be done now is the placing of the cells. This work was commenced Monday under the direction of Constructor Rousch of the Pauly Jail company of St. Louis, Mo.

The new cell house, which will be known as cell house No. 1, has a capacity of 200 cells. Of this number but fifty are now being installed. The last legislature did not appropriate enough money to complete the plan and the remaining 150 cells will not be installed at present.

The cells are of the newest and most improved pattern. The doors are operated by levers in the corridor, so arranged that one or all of the cells may be opened or closed at the same time. There are two corridors, one for the prisoners and the other for the guards, separated by steel bars. The guards' corridor encircles the entire tier of cells. At present there are 372 convicts confined within the walls of the state prison, enough to fill every cell in the prison, including the new ones not yet complete.

Of this large number of prisoners confined in the prison twenty-five are trustees and are allowed to work outside the walls. To them falls the duty of attending to the farm and stables. Warden Pratt has furnished the following report of fruit and vegetables supplied the prisoners for the month of August, all of which were raised on the prison farm: Cabbage, 3,025 pounds; onions, 432 pounds; turnips, 1,023 pounds; squash, 2,222 pounds; beans, 214 pounds; cucumbers, 738 pounds; carrots, 165 pounds; potatoes, 232 pounds; corn, 4,249 pounds; beets, 208 pounds; apples, 518 pounds; peaches, 400 pounds; tomatoes, 391 pounds; total, 15,336 pounds. It can be seen that convicts at the Utah state prison are well fed at a minimum cost to the state.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. ## CADET ROOKIES IN LINE.

High School Recruits Are Put Through Preliminary Drill.

The recruits had their first experience as cadets, yesterday, on the high school campus. The boys did well and Captain Webb is pleased with the outlook for the battalion.

Examinations were held for all second year men who cared for rank higher than a private. Over fifty of last year's recruits participated in the test for promotion.

Drill will be in full swing Wednesday and the campus will be covered with all the first and second year cadets. The appointments of the commissioned officers will be held Friday afternoon and the non-commissioned officers will be appointed some time the following week.

The cadet band had its first practice yesterday. About ten new pieces will be added and Director Christensen predicts a successful year.
